

Annex 2. An outline of the ILEC missions

For this study, ILEC sent three missions to Zimbabwe.

1. MISSION A

(1) Member of the mission: Mr. Haruo Miyata, Chief, Research Division, ILEC secretariat

(2) Objectives:

- To have interviews with government officials and researchers engaged in lake environment conservation and related activities;
- To collect relevant information by other means; and
- To make arrangements for the Workshop on Sustainable Management of the Lakes of Zimbabwe

(3) The officials and researchers met with

Date (1999)	Officials or researchers met with
16 January	Ms. Fumiko Nakai, Project Formulation Advisor, Japan International Cooperation Agency, Zimbabwe Office
18 January	Mr. Elmon Dhlo, Laboratory Technician (Environmental), Lake Kariba Research Station, University of Zimbabwe; and other researchers of the Research Station
19 January	Mr. Isaya Higa, Environmental Specialist, Environmental Sustainability Unit, United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) Zimbabwe Office
20 January	Mr. I.D. Kunene, Chief Ecologist, Department of Natural Resources, Ministry of Mines, Environment and Tourism; Mr. Jujamare, Ecologist (EIA), Department of Natural Resources Mr. Mitsuo Nakamura, Resident Representative, Japan International Cooperation Agency Zimbabwe Office; Mr. Tomohiro Seki, Assistant Resident Representative, Japan International Cooperation Agency Zimbabwe Office
21 January	Dr. Ngoni Moyo, Lecturer, Dept. of Biological Sciences, University of Zimbabwe Ms. Oliviah Zimba, Dept. of Water Development
22 January	Ms. Jufaro Jarawaza, Chief Chemist, Dept. of Works, City of Harare Mr. Takao Shibata, Minister-Counselor, Embassy of Japan

2. MISSION B

(1) Members of the mission:

- Ms. Yoko Hayashi, Visiting Researcher, ILEC secretariat (Member, Technology Committee, Japan Environmental Technology Association, and Chief, Applied R & D Department, DKK Corporation.)
- Mr. Victor Shiholo Muhandiki, Visiting Researcher to ILEC, Jomo Kennyatta University of Agriculture and Technology, and PhD Candidate, Research Center for Environmental Quality Control, Faculty of Engineering, Kyoto University
- Mr. Takeshi Kobayashi, Visiting Researcher, ILEC secretariat (Member, Technology Committee, Japan Environmental Technology Association, and pH Team, Scientific Measurement R & D Department, Horiba, Ltd.

(2) Objectives:

- Water quality analysis of Lakes Kariba, Mutirikse and Chivero;
- Collection of relevant information; and
- Organization of the Workshop on Sustainable Management of the Lakes of Zimbabwe

(3) Major activities

Date (1999)	Activities
16 February	Lake water quality check on the boat of the University Kariba Research Station with Mr. Elmon J. Dhlomo, Laboratory Technician (Environmental) of the Research Station
19 February	Lake water quality check at Lake Mutirikwe with the support from the officials of the Department of National Parks and Wildlife Management
22 February	Lake water quality check at Lake Chivero with the support from the officials of the Department of National Parks and Wildlife Management
24-25 February	Organization of and participation in the Workshop on Sustainable Management of the Lakes of Zimbabwe

3. MISSION C

(1) Member of the mission:

- Mr. Haruo Miyata, Chief, Research Division, ILEC secretariat

(2) Objective:

- Organization of the Workshop on Sustainable Management of the Lakes of Zimbabwe, 24-25 February, Holiday Inn Harare